

DISHONOURED WITHOUT GUILT

A young officer in the Italian Navy leaves for the war and does not know that his fiancée, who is pregnant, has been accused of spying and sent to prison. At the end of the war, the girl is set free; by now she is sure that her child is dead and that her fiancé was killed in the war, and so she becomes a nun. Her fiancé returns from America, where he had sought refuge, and returns just in time to trace the girl and the child.
