

ELEVEN DAYS ELEVEN NIGHTS 2

The writer Sarah Aspron, is involved in a complicated family situation. Before dying Lionel Durrington appointed her as eyewitness and only person to decide of the family estate. She has 11 days and 11 nights to investigate the family's private life. Sara accepts promising her editor a memorial story for her next Best Seller. She will seduce all the men to discover the plots and secrets of the family. The job turns to be more difficult than what she thought, but at the end she succeeds and publishes the book with Lionel's blessing who turned out to be alive ready to enjoy the estate money with her.
