

GOLDEN EAGLE

September 1943 a convoy of German military vehicles breaks into the Roman headquarters of Bank of Italy and raids all the gold.

In January 1945, Lieutenant Schaeffer received from the command of the Third Reich the order to load in his submarine all the boxes marked with the symbol of the Golden Eagle and took them to the Barents Sea where his boat will be given a new identification number , number 977.

Meanwhile, on 8th May 1945 the American Lieutenant Sanders, arrived in proximity where the U-BOOT 977 is ready to sail its precious cargo, and manages to explode Base but the U-BOOT 977 can escape.

That moment sets the start of the hunt for it which will be filled with exciting and thrilling twists and turns and moments of pure adventure and drama.
