

MEDITERRANEO

Greek Sea, World War II. An Italian ship leaves a handful of soldiers in a little island; their mission is to spot enemy ships and to hold the island in case of attack. The village of the island seems abandoned and there is not a single enemy in sight. Actually, the island is not deserted and when the Greeks understand that those Italians are harmless, they came out of their hiding places.

COMEDY

VERSIONS	FR, IT, ES
DIRECTORS	GABRIELE SALVATORES
CAST	CLAUDIO BISIO DIEGO ABATANTUONO CLAUDIO BIGAGLI
DISTRIBUTION	Variety Distribution Srl
PHOTOGRAPY	Color
DURATION	95'
YEAR	1991
AREA	Italy
AWARDS	Best Foreign Language Film Best Film (Miglior Film) Best Editing (Migliore Montatore)