RAPTURE OF LOVE

A rich businesswoman in Madrid wants her daughter to marry a suitable husband. The girl falls in love with a normal engineer and marries him. The young man proves to be a real businessman and becomes manager of the factory together with his mother-in-law's brother. But the mother-in-law and her envious son find several compromising photographs of the young man. She starts to blackmail her son-in-law, but in vain. The young couple quickly get over the crisis and go on with a rich, happy life.
